

2020 DAYTONA 500

| TOUR PRODUCT INFORMATION |

Date

Sunday, Feb.16, 2020

61st Annual Race

Fast Facts

- Located 1 hour east of Orlando in Daytona Beach, Florida.
- Daytona Beach is the site of the first official race in NASCAR history.
- "The Great American Race" is 200 laps and covers 500 miles.

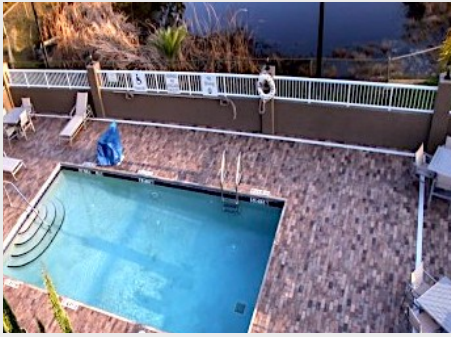

Why Attend the Daytona 500?

NASCAR has become the No. 1 spectator sport in the U.S. Daytona 500 is the biggest, most prominent stock car race in the nation and kicks off the NASCAR series schedule.

What is included?

- Three, four, or five nights quality hotel accommodations
- Daytona 500 tickets
- Roundtrip track transfers to the race
- Full hot breakfast daily
- Commemorative race program
- Admission to the Motorsports Museum

Visit www.sportstraveler.net/daytona500 for complete package details and pricing.

Contact Us:

Toll Free: 1-888-654-7755

Outside USA: +1-773-881-0076

Email: sales@sportstraveler.net

Website: www.sportstraveler.net/daytona500

Packages Available:

- 3 night Delta Marriott Daytona Beach Oceanfront from $1,115.00 per person
- 3 night Holiday Inn Express Daytona Speedway from $1,115.00 per person
- 4 night Holiday Inn Express Daytona Speedway from $1,295.00 per person
- 5 night Holiday Inn Express Daytona Speedway from $1,525.00 per person

Description of Add-Ons

- Ticket Upgrades: Change seat locations to enhance the view of the track and race
- Weekend Scanner Rental: Listen to in-car audio between drivers, crew, and spotters
- Pre Race Fan Zone: Walk across the track surface, over the grassy Tri-Oval area and onto Pit Road during pre-race activities
- Packages with hotel lodging in the Orlando Area: Perfect for anyone who wants to combine their tour with a trip to Walt Disney World Resort or Universal Studios